Grand Total	£
--------------------	----------

- Partners: Please make your selection from the Pick 'n' Mix list. Partners wishing to join the social events, but not attend lecture sessions, should select everything marked (P): total £200. We assume that partners will wish to visit Stirling (or environs) for the mornings of Friday, Saturday and Sunday joining delegates for lunches, afternoons and evenings.
- Guests are welcome to join delegates and partners for the Baker Memorial Lecture and Gala Dinner at Stirling Castle on Friday evening.
- Accommodation. Delegates will need to book their own accommodation. We suggest the Stirling City Centre Premier Inn or Travelodge, both very close to Stirling bus and railway stations and the conference venue, The Engine Shed. For a more traditional stay, try the Golden Lion; for more luxury, the Stirling Highland Hotel. For those on a budget, Stirling Youth Hostel has shared and private rooms, all en-suite, and there is unofficial accommodation available through AirBnB and suchlike websites. As the BLF Gathering coincides with the Bloody Scotland crime-writing festival, we recommend booking your accommodation and travel soon!
